

-- date --

Name
address
address

Dear -----,

Thank you for your willingness to serve on -----'s S.E.A. Team!

Enclosed with this letter is a purpose statement that explains why S.E.A. Teams have been developed, and what we hope to accomplish together over the next year. Already, Teams just like this one have met and have helped to facilitate a smooth transition into a new chapter of that church's history and ministry. Our committee is very encouraged about what S.E.A. Teams can mean for congregations, pastors, and kingdom ministry.

Also enclosed is a list of questions that will guide our discussion each time we meet.

Finally, the classis Pastoral Relations Committee has appointed two people who will attend and facilitate each meeting. In addition to being the Classis Minister, the Pastoral Relations Committee has asked that I be the appointed Mentor (guidelines included) for the Rev. ----- . From the committee itself, Elder --- ----- from ----- Church will be the group's co-leader. ---- or I will be phoning you in the next 7-10 days to confirm our upcoming meeting. We look forward to seeing you on -date, time -- , at -----.

Yours in Christ,

Pastoral Relations Committee,
Zeeland Classis

December 5, 2001

Mr. Wayne Boeve
4142 142nd Ave.
Hamilton, MI 49419

Dear Wayne,

Thank you for your willingness to serve on Overisel's S.E.A. Team!

Enclosed with this letter is a purpose statement that explains why S.E.A. Teams have been developed, and what we hope to accomplish together over the next year. Already, Teams just like this one have met and have helped to facilitate a smooth transition into a new chapter of that church's history and ministry. Our committee is very encouraged about what S.E.A. Teams can mean for congregations, pastors, and kingdom ministry.

Also enclosed is a list of questions that will guide our discussion each time we meet.

Finally, the classis Pastoral Relations Committee has appointed two people who will attend and facilitate each meeting. In addition to being the Classis Minister, the Pastoral Relations Committee has asked that I be the appointed Mentor (guidelines included) for the Rev. Scott Lokers. From the committee itself, Elder Gerry Klaver from Ebenezer Reformed Church will be the group's co-leader. We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, December 5, 8:15pm, at Overisel.

Yours in Christ,

Steve Smallegan
Pastoral Relations Committee,
Zeeland Classis

December 5, 2001

Ms. Jane Naber
607 Melrose Dr.
Holland, MI 49423

Dear Jane,

Thank you for your willingness to serve on Overisel's S.E.A. Team!

Enclosed with this letter is a purpose statement that explains why S.E.A. Teams have been developed, and what we hope to accomplish together over the next year. Already, Teams just like this one have met and have helped to facilitate a smooth transition into a new chapter of that church's history and ministry. Our committee is very encouraged about what S.E.A. Teams can mean for congregations, pastors, and kingdom ministry.

Also enclosed is a list of questions that will guide our discussion each time we meet.

Finally, the classis Pastoral Relations Committee has appointed two people who will attend and facilitate each meeting. In addition to being the Classis Minister, the Pastoral Relations Committee has asked that I be the appointed Mentor (guidelines included) for the Rev. Scott Lokers. From the committee itself, Elder Gerry Klaver from Ebenezer Reformed Church will be the group's co-leader. We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, December 5, 8:15pm, at Overisel.

Yours in Christ,

Steve Smallegan
Pastoral Relations Committee,
Zeeland Classis

December 5, 2001

Mr. Nate Genzink
4614 135th Ave.
Hamilton, MI 49419

Dear Nate,

Thank you for your willingness to serve on Overisel's S.E.A. Team!

Enclosed with this letter is a purpose statement that explains why S.E.A. Teams have been developed, and what we hope to accomplish together over the next year. Already, Teams just like this one have met and have helped to facilitate a smooth transition into a new chapter of that church's history and ministry. Our committee is very encouraged about what S.E.A. Teams can mean for congregations, pastors, and kingdom ministry.

Also enclosed is a list of questions that will guide our discussion each time we meet.

Finally, the classis Pastoral Relations Committee has appointed two people who will attend and facilitate each meeting. In addition to being the Classis Minister, the Pastoral Relations Committee has asked that I be the appointed Mentor (guidelines included) for the Rev. Scott Lokers. From the committee itself, Elder Gerry Klaver from Ebenezer Reformed Church will be the group's co-leader. We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, December 5, 8:15pm, at Overisel.

Yours in Christ,

Steve Smallegan
Pastoral Relations Committee,
Zeeland Classis

December 5, 2001

Ms. Barb Peters
A-4443 44th St.
Hamilton, MI 49419

Dear Barb,

Thank you for your willingness to serve on Overisel's S.E.A. Team!

Enclosed with this letter is a purpose statement that explains why S.E.A. Teams have been developed, and what we hope to accomplish together over the next year. Already, Teams just like this one have met and have helped to facilitate a smooth transition into a new chapter of that church's history and ministry. Our committee is very encouraged about what S.E.A. Teams can mean for congregations, pastors, and kingdom ministry.

Also enclosed is a list of questions that will guide our discussion each time we meet.

Finally, the classis Pastoral Relations Committee has appointed two people who will attend and facilitate each meeting. In addition to being the Classis Minister, the Pastoral Relations Committee has asked that I be the appointed Mentor (guidelines included) for the Rev. Scott Lokers. From the committee itself, Elder Gerry Klaver from Ebenezer Reformed Church will be the group's co-leader. We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, December 5, 8:15pm, at Overisel.

Yours in Christ,

Steve Smallegan
Pastoral Relations Committee,
Zeeland Classis

December 5, 2001

Mr. Glenn Kleinheksel
4269 47th St.
Holland, MI 49423

Dear Glenn,

Thank you for your willingness to serve on Overisel's S.E.A. Team!

Enclosed with this letter is a purpose statement that explains why S.E.A. Teams have been developed, and what we hope to accomplish together over the next year. Already, Teams just like this one have met and have helped to facilitate a smooth transition into a new chapter of that church's history and ministry. Our committee is very encouraged about what S.E.A. Teams can mean for congregations, pastors, and kingdom ministry.

Also enclosed is a list of questions that will guide our discussion each time we meet.

Finally, the classis Pastoral Relations Committee has appointed two people who will attend and facilitate each meeting. In addition to being the Classis Minister, the Pastoral Relations Committee has asked that I be the appointed Mentor (guidelines included) for the Rev. Scott Lokers. From the committee itself, Elder Gerry Klaver from Ebenezer Reformed Church will be the group's co-leader. We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, December 5, 8:15pm, at Overisel.

Yours in Christ,

Steve Smallegan
Pastoral Relations Committee,
Zeeland Classis

December 5, 2001

Mr. Phil Sneller
A-4710 44th St.
Holland, MI 49423

Dear Wayne,

Thank you for your willingness to serve on Overisel's S.E.A. Team!

Enclosed with this letter is a purpose statement that explains why S.E.A. Teams have been developed, and what we hope to accomplish together over the next year. Already, Teams just like this one have met and have helped to facilitate a smooth transition into a new chapter of that church's history and ministry. Our committee is very encouraged about what S.E.A. Teams can mean for congregations, pastors, and kingdom ministry.

Also enclosed is a list of questions that will guide our discussion each time we meet.

Finally, the classis Pastoral Relations Committee has appointed two people who will attend and facilitate each meeting. In addition to being the Classis Minister, the Pastoral Relations Committee has asked that I be the appointed Mentor (guidelines included) for the Rev. Scott Lokers. From the committee itself, Elder Gerry Klaver from Ebenezer Reformed Church will be the group's co-leader. We look forward to seeing you on Wednesday, December 5, 8:15pm, at Overisel.

Yours in Christ,

Steve Smallegan
Pastoral Relations Committee,
Zeeland Classis